DELANEY KIPHUTH, '41

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

DeLaney Kiphuth was named to his present position in 1954. He was previously a member of the staff at Hotchkiss School in Lakeville, Conn., where he served as instructor in history and Director of Athletics. In addition, he was head coach of football and swimming at Hotchkiss. As the son of Robert J. H. Kiphuth, former Yale swimming coach and himself Director of Athletics (1946-49), he has been closely associated with Yale and athletics since childhood. Born in New Haven, he prepared at Andover where he was a member of the football team and captain of the swimming team. He was a guard on Yale's varsity football team for three years and received his Bachelor of Arts degree as a member of the Class of 1941. After his graduation, he joined the Hotchkiss faculty for one year, leaving to serve in the United States Air Force. He saw duty in Europe, being discharged in 1946 with the rank of major. He then entered the Yale Graduate School and in 1947 received his Master of Arts degree in history. While pursuing his studies here, he coached the Yale freshman swimming team and was line coach for the Yale freshman football team. In addition to his duties as Director of Athletics, he has been a lecturer in history at Yale since 1958 and was named Director of Yale's Payne Whitney Gymnasium in 1959.

WILLIAM H. NEALE, '25

BUSINESS MANAGER

A member of the Yale Athletic Association staff since 1933, William H. (Widdy) Neale has held his present post as business manager since 1951. Previous to that, he had been the director of Yale's vast intramural athletic program. A native of Parkersburg, W. Va., he was a three-sport standout in football, basketball and baseball as a Yale undergraduate. He was a member of the undefeated, untied football team of 1923, and the same year participated with the championship basketball squad. Following graduation, he entered private business for six years, before joining the faculty of the Oak Hill (W. Va.) High School, where he also coached football and basketball. From 1934 to 1940, while serving as Director of Intramural Athletics, he coached the Yale freshman team as backfield mentor. A golfer of note, he has won several senior Connecticut State Golf Association titles, including consecutive triumphs in 1957 and 1958. As Yale varsity golf coach, his teams won a national title in 1943 and the Eastern Intercollegiate and Big Three championships in 1954. He is secretary and treasurer of the Connecticut State Golf Association.

JAMES (GIB) HOLGATE

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

James "Gib" Holgate assumed the duties of Assistant Director of Athletics in 1961. Born in Gary, Ind., Holgate attended Shorewood High School, Milwaukee, Wisc., where he captained the football team and lettered in football, basketball and track. He played freshman football at the University of Wisconsin, but the following year, as a Marine trainee, he was a member of the University of Michigan varsity. Following overseas service as an officer in World War II, he returned to Michigan in 1946. While working for his B.S. degree and his M.S. in Physical Education there, he assisted in coaching Michigan's junior varsity football squad. In 1948, he joined the staff of Hillsdale College as athletic director, assistant professor of Physical Education and head football coach. He came to Yale in 1949, serving for two seasons as junior varsity coach. In 1951 he became head coach of freshman football, a post he also currently holds. During his 13-year tenure with the freshman, teams he coached have won 49 games, lost only 23 and tied seven for a fine .665 average. Three times (1953, 1954 and 1959) the freshman were undefeated and in four other seasons the teams lost only one game. Holgate has served on the coaching staffs for college all-star games in Chicago and Miami, has authored a book entitled Fundamental Football published in 1958, and is a member of the Marine Corps active reserve in which he now holds the rank of lieutenant colonel. He is married and the father of three children.

HEAD COACH

Yale's 31st football coach, John Pont had a successful inaugural season in 1963 when his varsity footballers compiled a six won, three lost record. This was their first winning season since 1960 and the Elis finished in a fourth place tie in the Ivy League.

The former head coach at Miami University (of Ohio), was named as head football coach at Yale in March 1963 succeeding Jordan Oliver who had resigned the previous January after a successful eleven-year tenure.

A native of Canton, Ohio, the 36 year old Pont won all-state recognition as a guard at Canton Timken High School. Following graduation, he enlisted in the Navy and became a halfback with the San Diego Submarine Base team.

He entered Miami in 1948 and began his varsity career as a sophomore by returning the opening kickoff, in the first game of the season, 94 yards for a touchdown. During his career, Pont carried the ball 439 times for 4,184 yards and an amazing average of 9.5 yards per carry. He became the top ground gainer in Miami history despite his 5-7, 167 pound frame. Pont wore jersey number 42, the only one in Miami football history to be retired.

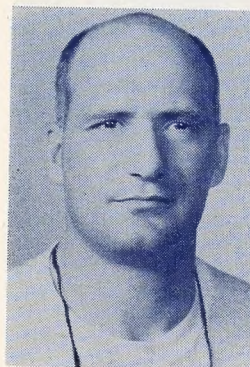

After graduation, the three time All-Conference halfback tried out with the Green Bay Packers but was released as being "too small." He finished the 1952 season with the Toronto Argonauts.

Like Yale, Miami has a football legend. One that has produced big-name coaches such as Woody Hayes, Earl Blaik, Paul Brown, Weeb Ewbank, Paul Dietzel and Ara Parseghian.

In 1956, when Parseghian moved to Northwestern, Pont was appointed varsity coach after serving as freshman coach at his alma-mater. In his first season, Miami won the conference crown compiling a 7-1-1 record. During seven seasons at the Ohio school, Pont's teams have won 43, lost 21 and tied two games. Last year, the Redskins won the Mid-America Conference championship for the third time under his direction and ended the season with an outstanding 8-1-1 mark. Included in the victory column was a 10-7 win over Purdue, one of the major upsets of the 1962 collegiate football campaign.

The Canton, Ohio native is married to the former Sandy Stoutt and the father of three children, John, Jennifer and Jeff.

The Assistants:

CARMEN COZZA

Came to Yale in 1963 after serving as freshman coach and varsity assistant at Miami (of Ohio) under John Pont. Cozza is the backfield coach handling both offense and defense. The Cleveland, Ohio native is a former teammate and roommate of John Pont. He was graduated from Parma Schaaf High School where he won eleven letters while playing four sports. A defensive standout on the gridiron, he was captain of the baseball team his senior year. In 1952, he pitched a no-hitter for Miami. After graduation, he signed a Cleveland contract and played minor league baseball for both the Indians and White Sox.

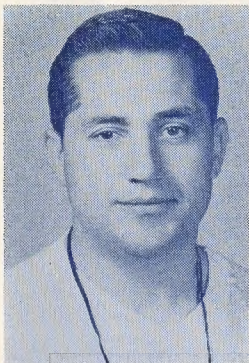

He also served as assistant coach at Collinwood (Ohio) High School and head coach at Gilmore Academy. He holds Bachelor and Master degrees from Miami. Cozza is married and father of three children. During the spring, he served as assistant freshman baseball coach.

HERBERT FAIRFIELD

This Chelsea, Mass. native came to Yale last year with head coach John Pont after serving as assistant and head freshman football coach at Miami (of Ohio). Fairfield is coaching the guards and preps the Elis in offensive blocking. Herb assisted the track coaching staff during the past season. After gaining all-state recognition at Weymouth (Mass.) High School, he served in the Navy from 1951-1955. Entering Miami after the service, he was a regular at tackle for three years gaining league mention and Academic All-American honors. He also participated in wrestling. Upon graduation, he entered Southern Illinois University where he served as freshman coach while earning a Masters Degree in 1960. He and Mrs. Fairfield have two sons.

JAY FRY

The 1964 football season will mark Jay Fry's second season at Yale. He is the tackle coach after serving in the same position at Miami (of Ohio) on the staff of John Pont. He was awarded B.S. and M.S. degrees at Miami after beginning his college career at Cedarville (Ohio) College. A former tennis player at Hamilton (Ohio) High School, Fry played no football until entering college. At Miami, he participated in both football and wrestling and was selected as an All-Conference guard. After graduation, he was a member of the College All-Star team and later played with the Los Angeles Rams. He coached at Celina (Ohio) High School and Ontario Agricultural and Veterinary College in Canada before returning to Miami in 1956 to join his classmate John Pont as varsity assistant. Fry was wrestling coach at Miami and is the freshman wrestling coach at Yale. Married, he is the father of three children.

HARRY JACUNSKI

Senior member in point of service on the current Yale coaching staff, Harry Jacunski has been tutoring Eli varsity linemen since 1948. He was scholastic standout in football and basketball in his native New Britain, Conn. At Fordham, he was an honor student and co-captain of the 1938 football team. Following graduation, he competed for six seasons in the professional ranks as a member of the Green Bay Packers. Teaming with Don Hudson to give the Packers a great pair of ends, he won selection to the All-League squad. He served for one year as end coach at Notre Dame and followed this up with a two-year tenure at Harvard prior to taking up his present duties at Yale. He and Mrs. Jacunski have five children.

ERNEST PLANK

"Ernie" is now in his second year as Yale end coach, the same position he held at Miami (of Ohio). A native of Columbus, Ohio, Plank was a football, basketball and baseball standout at Bexley High School in Columbus. He gained all-state honors in both football and basketball and was captain of both teams. He played football under Paul Brown at the Great Lakes Naval Station and Ohio State before transferring to Miami (of Ohio) where he captained the Redskins during Pont's sophomore year. A stand-out at defensive tackle, he later was head coach of football and basketball at Grove City (Ohio) High School before returning to his alma mater as Pont's aide. During the winter, "Ernie" serves as assistant basketball coach at Yale. Plank is married and the father of two.

BILL DAYTON

Oliver W. "Bill" Dayton was appointed head trainer of the Yale Athletic Association in 1956. The 49 year old veteran of over two decades in the field of athletic conditioning is a product of Brooklyn's Manual Training High School. He was graduated from the Swedish Institute of Physiotherapy in New York in 1937 and the following year from the Eastern School of Physiotherapy. Prior to joining the Yale staff, Dayton was head trainer of the Ector County Independent School System in Odessa, Texas. He had previously held similar positions at Texas A & M, Tulane, and the University of Miami. In 1944, he was voted "Trainer of the Year" and served as President of the Eastern Athletic Trainers Association in 1957. He is the author of the highly regarded Athletic Training and Conditioning. This fall, he is serving as a trainer for the Olympic Games in Tokyo.

*Returning lettermen (23)
(Niglio - lettered in 1961)

CAPTAIN AB LAWRENCE

Yale's 86th varsity football leader. Ab has been a standout at the tackle position since arriving at Yale. As a junior, he was an official All-Ivy choice at his position after making impressive showings on both offense and defense. From Portland, Ore., he was graduated from Beaverton High School and is majoring in Latin American Studies. Always alert, Ab led the team in opponent's fumble recoveries last year with three. He is a 6-2, 237 pound lineman.

Ends

DONALD BURTON—Came from virtually nowhere in mid-season to win a varsity letter as a sophomore. A youngster with good speed, Don played mostly on defense during 1963. He began the season with the junior varsity, but his hard work and good sense of football quickly gained him varsity status. The Macon, Ga., resident, was graduated from Lanier High School. He is majoring in history and is a resident of Branford College. Burton is a 6-2, 175 pounder.

CHARLES CARTER (BUNKY)—A 6-3, 179 pound double letterwinner who started the season slowly as a junior due to a string of injuries but played well during the late stages of the season. Caught two passes for 25 yards. "Bunky" is captain of the Yale ski team and an attackman on the Eli lacrosse squad. He is majoring in Industrial Administration and is a resident of Berkeley College. His home is St. Peter, Minn. The senior prepared for Yale at Andover.

STEPHEN LAWRENCE—Steve was the starting split end during the past season and led the Elis in receiving with 10 passes for 109 yards and a touchdown. As a sophomore he was also a starter. The biggest member of the end corps, at 6-4, 216, Steve moves well and has fine hands. A graduate of Naperville (Ill.) High School, Steve now lives in N. Caldwell, N.J. He is majoring in history and is a resident of Saybrook College. Naturally, won letters in both his sophomore and junior years.

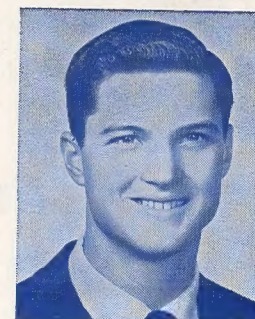

MICHAEL McCASKEY—After seeing jayvee action at quarterback as a sophomore, he was moved to end during preseason drills last year and closed out the 1963 campaign as second team split end. A tough competitor, Mike caught three passes for 34 yards in his letterwinning junior year. The 6-1, 178 pound flanker could be a great value to the 1964 squad. Prepared for Yale at Notre Dame High School and is a resident of Des Plaines, Ill. At Yale, Mike lives in Morse College and is majoring in philosophy.

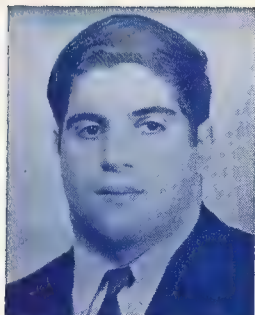

CHARLES CARTER

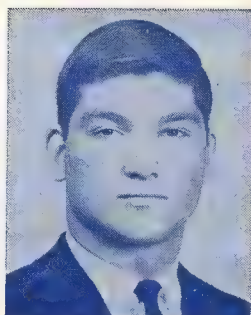

STEPHEN LAWRENCE

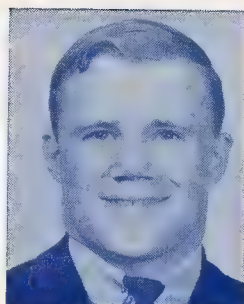

MICHAEL McCASKEY

MEL SHAFTEL

DAVID STRONG

CHARLES BENOIT

DANIEL O'GRADY—Won a letter last season as a split end. Dan came to Yale after an impressive career at Leonia (N.J.) High School. He plays both offense and defense. An American Studies major, Dan lives in Davenport College. He has good speed and good hands. A 6-4, 208 pound senior.

MYRON WICK—Mike moved up to varsity status late last season both as a punter and tight end. Plays defense with Yale hockey team. Mike is one of the many Connecticut residents on the Eli team and lives in Greenwich. The 6-4, 194 pound senior is majoring in history and lives at Yale's Silliman College. Mike prepared at St. Mark's.

Tackles

MICHAEL LONERGAN—A quick and tough junior lineman who was switched from guard in early practice sessions last year and went on to be the only sophomore tackle to win a varsity letter. By the close of the season was pushing the starters. The 6-2, 211 pound lineman is also a heavyweight wrestler. Mike was graduated from Wellesley High School and lives in Wellesley Hills, Mass. At Yale, Mike resides in Branford College and is majoring in English.

MEL SHAFTEL—After playing mostly defense his sophomore year, Mel got experience in both phases of the game last fall to win his second letter as a reserve tackle. This fall, he will be a leading contender for a starting tackle assignment. The 5-11, 238 pound lineman is majoring in economics and prepared for Yale at Cheshire. He is from Brooklyn, N.Y. and lives in Davenport College.

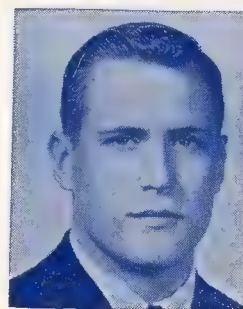

DAVID STRONG—Dave played behind captain-elect Ab Lawrence last season, getting plenty of experience in preparation for the 1964 season. A hard worker, Dave comes from Detroit, Mich. and was graduated from Redford High School. He is majoring in political science and lives in Berkeley College. Dave is a 6-1, 221 pound tackle.

Guards

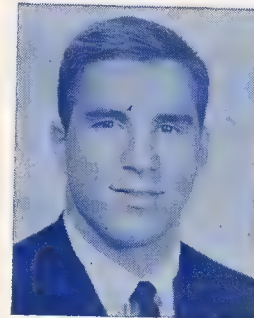

CHARLES BENOIT—Won a starting assignment at left guard early in pre-season practice and did a man-size job after seeing mostly defensive duty as a sophomore. This double letterwinner is a real fire plug and can move quickly. Charlie lives at Branford College and is majoring in political science. He prepared for Yale at Williston and is a resident of Agawam, Mass. The 5-9, 208 pound senior is captain of the lacrosse team and an All-America defense man.

RALPH VANDERSLOOT—one of the best linemen in the Ivy League, Ralph has shown that he could play in any league since his sophomore year with outstanding performances week after week. In his junior year, Ralph was a second team All-Ivy selection on both the official coaches and AP teams. In the spring, he is one of the leading pitchers of the Yale baseball team. He was graduated from Asbury Park (N. J.) High School and now is a resident of Orinda, Calif. He is majoring in mathematics at Yale and lives in Trumbull College. The 6-1, 197 pound guard is a strong candidate for sectional honors this season.

GREGORY WEISS—This 5-10, 200 pound guard may not be exceedingly flashy on the field but he certainly is effective. As a sophomore letterwinner, he was one of the most consistent performers at guard, closing out the season with the second team. Is being counted on to give the Elis plenty of help this year. A graduate of Westfield High School in Westfield, N. J. A junior electrical engineering student, and a resident of Branford College.

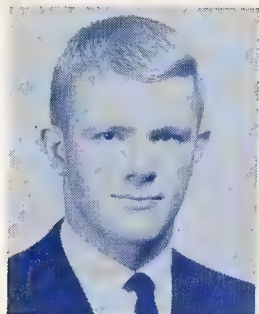

RALPH VANDERSLOOT

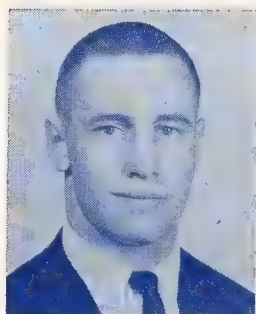

TIMOTHY MERRILL

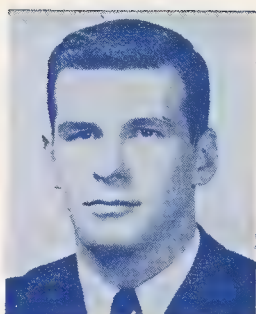

PETER CUMMINGS

JAMES GRONINGER

JAMES HOWARD

CHARLES MERCEIN

Center

TIMOTHY MERRILL—Played behind George Humphrey, (last year's captain) and started in the Princeton game when the Eli leader was disabled. Outstanding on offense, Tim can be one of the league's best pivotmen during the coming season. Also an alert defender. As a freshman, he was elected team captain and has earned two varsity letters since. At Yale, he lives at Trumbull College and is majoring in metallurgy. His hometown is Cambridge, Ohio and he was graduated from Cambridge High School. Yale's only returning letterman at center. He is a 6-3, 193 pound lineman.

Backs

PETER CUMMINGS—After leading the Elis in rushing as a sophomore, (averaging five yards per carry for 394 yards), Pete had injury problems last year, although he did finish the season carrying the ball 34 times for 165 yards, an impressive 4.9 mark. In addition the 6-1, 200 pound senior scored two touchdowns. This senior fullback combines power with speed (he played halfback in prep school) to provide the Elis with good depth at the heavy duty spot. A graduate of Loomis, Pete is from Briarcliff Manor, N.Y. At Yale, he is majoring in English and lives at Branford College. His dad played football for the University of Illinois. Pete also plays lacrosse.

TONE GRANT—Was the runnerup quarterback last year as a sophomore and did a creditable job. An excellent ballhandler and passer, Tone completed 16 of 48 passes for 215 yards and a pair of touchdowns. The 5-10, 156 pound junior will be the only returning letterman at quarterback this year and must be considered as a prime pre-season candidate for the starter's job. He is a lefthander who pitches for the Yale baseball squad. Tone prepared at Andover and is a resident of Bethesda, Md. He lives at Stiles College.

JAMES GRONINGER—After starting the season as a "tense" sophomore, Jim settled down to impress the coaching staff and win his first varsity letter. As freshman captain, he averaged 6.5 yards per carry and runs hard for a halfback getting every yard plus. Last year he averaged close to four yards a carry, scored a touchdown and was a good receiver. Will be the most experienced returnee at righthalf. The six foot, 184 pound junior is also a member of the Yale lacrosse team. He was graduated from Aurora West High School and lives in Aurora, Ill. He is majoring in mechanical engineering. Resides in Berkeley College.

WILLIAM HENDERSON—Bill saw spot duty at quarterback as a sophomore and after Coach Pont saw his running talents, Bill agreed to make the change to a running back last season. Ended the campaign as second team left halfback, scoring a touchdown and led the team with a 8.7 yard rushing average. Also caught two passes. A former tailback from New Trier High School. Bill lives in Winnetka, Ill. His younger brother, Schuyler, is a tailback candidate for the current Princeton varsity football team. Bill is majoring in history and is a resident of Saybrook College. He is a 5-10, 187 pound senior.

JAMES HOWARD—Won a starting assignment in the second game of the season at left halfback and when the Harvard game ended he was still there. Jim was the number three rusher and pass receiver for the Elis. A real hustler with good outside speed, the Park Forest, Ill. resident also led the team in punt and kickoff returns. He was graduated from Rich High School. Also a baseball outfielder. At Yale he lives at Berkeley College. Jim stands at 5-11 and weighs 165. He's a junior.

FREDERIC KNAPP—Played mostly defense last season at both halfback and safety. "Woody" is an alert player who has the ability to follow the play and make the stop. He also plays hockey and baseball. "Woody" is majoring in history and is a member of Stiles College. The 5-10, 174 pound senior graduated from Walt Whitman High School and is a resident of Huntington, N.Y.

CHARLES MERCEIN—After seeing mostly defensive action as a sophomore, Chuck returned as a junior to surprise the coaching staff and Eli opponents by leading Yale in scoring (43 points), rushing (422 yards, 4.8) plus kicking 16 of 17 extra point attempts, and five field goals. He was also one of the leading pass receivers on the squad and handled the kickoff assignment. He also played well at defense from a linebacker spot. After the season ended, Chuck received honorable mention recognition on both the coaches and A.P. All-Ivy squads. The six foot, 215 pound back is also a member of the Eli track team and one of the best shotput men in Yale history. He lives in Trumbull College and is majoring in history. Is from Winnetka, Ill. and was graduated from New Trier High School.

Sophomore prospects:

Yale's freshman team last fall closed out the campaign with a 4-1-2 overall record and a 3-1-2 mark in Ivy League play. Three wins over league foes were more than any other Ivy institution was able to accumulate during the past season. These '64 sophomores will determine the extent of Yale's vital factor of depth.

BOB KENNEY, 6-2, 210 pound slot end heads the flanker corps. He led the freshman ends with an impressive total of 24 receptions for over 350 yards. Bob is fast, yet graceful for his size and also has plenty of defensive ability. Two older brothers are former Yale football players. ROY THOMPSON is a good two-way player who can play either side. Other varsity end assistance could come from PETE COATES and JIM SAXON.

The tackle picture has plenty of size in BOB GREENLEE (6-2, 235), and PAUL PREWITT (6-3, 222). Both have the ability to play varsity football. Another tackle who saw limited offense and defense work is BILL VANCE. However, he handled the placekicking duties, converting nine of 12 attempts and kicking five field goals, more than any other freshman in the past decade.

GEORGE ELLIOTT and JAMES RUEBEL are a pair of capable 190 pound guards while LAWRENCE (Tip) HIMES was a freshman standout on defense.

PETE DOHERTY ended the season as the starting quarterback. This 6' 3" youngster appears to be a prime varsity prospect. Considered a good passer and runner who calls a "smart" game. He completed 58 passes for 761 yards. Other candidates at QB are TED CAREY and HANK SPIRES.

Last year's freshman captain, TIM WEIGEL was the leading ground gainer with 426 yards for a 3.6 average. He is a wiggly runner with good speed and balance. Also a capable receiver with 17 receptions last fall. DICK FATES is a pony halfback at 5-8, 155, but has good speed and talent. Others who might break into the halfback picture are CHRIS KULE, BILL HILGENDORF, BRUCE BRAND and BILL SUDOW.

For the second consecutive year, it will be tough for a sophomore to crash the varsity picture, especially at fullback. However, DAVE FOSTER and JOHN ROCHE will try.

†Yale was leading at time play ended but game was declared tie by referee because of encroaching darkness. Under the Association Rules of the 1880's, two full halves had to be played in order to make any game an official contest.

the yale bowl

This year marks the fiftieth anniversary of the beautiful Yale Bowl. This football stadium seating 70,874 spectators was completed for the Harvard game in 1914. Today, it is still regarded as the finest stadium in America from which to view football. The entire structure is 930 feet long and 750 feet wide. It covers twelve and one-half acres. The building of the Bowl required the handling of 320,000 cubic yards of earth and into its construction went 22,000 cubic yards of concrete and 475 tons of steel. There are eighteen miles of seats for spectators. In the 49 years the Bowl has been in operation, 325 collegiate football games have been played there, witnessed by over 10,000,000 people. In addition to Yale football games, professional and high school teams have played there. The stadium was used for New Haven's Tercentenary in 1938 and was the scene of a U.S. War Bond rally in 1942. Numerous concerts have also been held in the famous saucer.

JAMES E. MANN, '65
1964 VARSITY MANAGER

Jim Mann, of Chicago, Ill., will serve as 1964 varsity manager. He was graduated from New Trier High School. Jim succeeds Bill Schaffer, of Narberth, Pa. Three undergraduates were selected in the sophomore managerial competition and all will be eligible for the position of head manager in 1965. They are William A. Barnes, of Providence, R.I., Gerald H. Kahn, of Kenmore, N.Y., and Mark J. Peddle, of Bridgeport, Conn. These three men will work with the varsity in addition to handling managerial duties with the junior varsity and freshman.

"Not until 1881 did Yale and Harvard agree to count safeties, but only in this way: the team which made four less safety touchdowns than their opponents was to win the game."

Princeton continued to use the "touch-in-goal", refusing to count safeties until point values were agreed upon in 1883.
